"AS GOOD AS EVER"

Private Seal always occupied a place of honor at picnics, on the porch, after the game or outing, at the time of relaxation after a hard day's work.

No reason to change from this old friend now. It is still made of the best hops and malt, still brewed and aged with the same infinite care. Its taste and body-building properties remain unchanged.

You liked Private Seal in the past; it is as good as ever today.

NORTH STONINGTON

The tenth annual fair of North Stonington grange successfully passed off. This fair is the pioneer of grange fairs in this section of the country and had its origin in the suggestion of Rev. Lucian Burr, a charter member of the grange. The attendance at the fair this year, with one exception, was the largest in its history. The exhibits were up to standard and in some departments surpassed anything shown before. Not a peach was to be seen, however, though with this exception the exhibit of fruit was fine. The flowers were exceptionally beautiful. Mrs. John Merriam and Mrs. Lyle C. Gray being the largest exhibitors. E. H. James' five tame foxes, with their bright eyes and handsome red fur, attracted much attention. William P. Thacker's litter of ten three-week-old piglets were a wonder and nothing less by reason of their size and beauty. The show of cattle was splendid. Holsteins predominated. Cooked food, canned goods and vegetables, excited admiration. The department of antiques was most interesting. In this line Mrs. George W. Tyson had a stirring collection of old dolls and their clothes, showing how even in the dolls the fashion has changed in fifty years. Best of all, the fair was an old home day for many former residents and a get-together good time for everybody.

Wheeler school opened last week with an attendance of about fifty. The principal, Floyd E. Reed, is assisted by Mr. Gordon and Miss Taylor, new teachers. Mrs. Reed gives instruction in sewing and cooking.

Miss Marion E. White left for Smith college, Northampton, Mass., Friday afternoon. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Frank White and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. White, the trip being made by automobile.

Harold W. Brown of New Haven has been visiting his mother, Mrs. W. H.

HEBRON

Brown, for a few days. Frank W. Stolpe has been passing a vacation in New York.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Bessie Lee of New London were in town last week and attended the grange fair.

Among visitors at the fair was Rev. George H. Miner of Myrtle, a native of this town.

Mrs. Jennie Bradley, of East Hartford, was a recent guest of Mrs. G. A. Little.

Mrs. E. A. Raymond was a week and visitor in Springfield, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. and Mrs. Sherwood Raymond and children of New Britain were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Raymond.

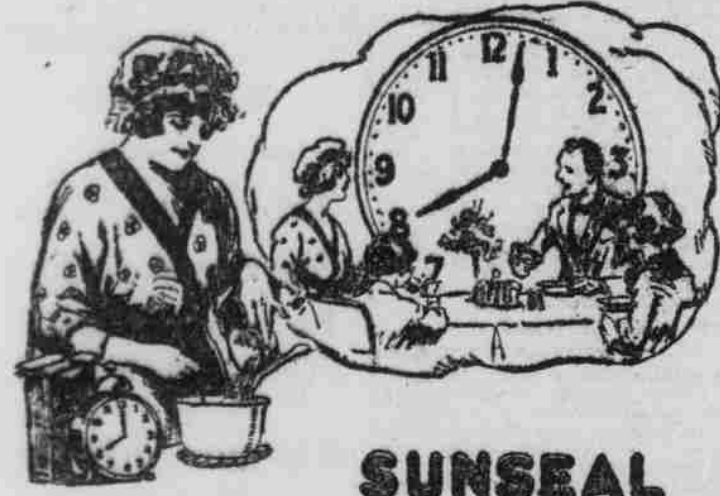

A number of the townspeople attended Springfield fair last week.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Rogers, Sunday noon, their eldest daughter, Miss Helen Rogers and Russell Pond were united in marriage. Rev. Howard Champ performed the ceremony.

A large number from the surrounding towns, Marlboro, Columbia and Colchester, attended the Hebron grange and school fair, Friday, which was a success in every way. The exhibits of stock, garden produce and fancy work all were fine, a number of prizes being awarded.

Callers at W. O. Seyn's Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harold House, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred House, of Hartford, Henry Bond of Kansas City, Miss Marie Bond and a friend from Natick.

Harry Smith of New Jersey, who has been a guest of the Hildings family for two weeks, returned home the first of the week. His grandmother, Mrs. John Hildings accompanied him. She expects to be gone a few weeks and will visit her daughters in New York and New Jersey.

No supply of coal has yet been received for heating Killingly high school building, so it is much the same as many of the private homes in the village. All the surrounding country is being scoured for wild grapes and other uncultivated products that, properly manipulated, help take some of the aridity out of life.

W. Fenner Woodward, judge of the Killingly town court, presided at a session of the Putnam city court.

The motor freight transport between Danielson and Providence is now in operation and will be gradually developed as soon as circumstances permit.

Henry P. Dubois was elected grand knight of Rose of Lima council, K. of C., at the annual election of officers. Francis Dougherty deputy grand knight. Mark O. Burns recorder. Arthur DeForest east chancellor. Frank Mallhot outside guard and Allen Rounds inside guard. Rosario Duval was named as warden.

Mrs. Susie G. Williams of Brooklyn, secretary of Quinebaug Pomona grange, has sent out notices of a special meeting of the organization to be held at the Little River grange, No. 56, of Hampton Saturday, October 9. The morning session is to open at 10:30, for conferring of the fifth degree. Members of Little River grange will furnish the dinner. The sixth degree will be conferred during the afternoon by state officers, thus giving ample opportunity to take both the fifth and sixth degree. "Then," says the notice, "to Boston, November 12, for the seventh."

Where the state road cuts through what for years was known as the Wheat farm, north of Attawaugus, state highway forces are putting in a drain that passes under the highway. The state road broke through at this particular place late last winter, entirely blocking traffic for a time. It is expected that the new draining system will take care of the surplus water there and prevent a recurrence of last winter's trouble.

At Dayville, some looms and other machinery are being operated in the plant of the American Woolen company, which concern was closed for weeks beginning in July.

In the town court Tuesday morning, a fine of $10 and costs was imposed on the driver of a motor truck owned by Morris Pond, who was charged with violation of the motor vehicle laws, the violation consisting of running a light motor truck with the cut-out open, through the business section, following repeated warnings of Chief John MacFarland that this practice must cease.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Call, who have spent the summer at Cedar Tree Point, near Appenzel, R. I., have closed their cottage there and returned to their Broad street home in Danielson.

Letters received in Brooklyn indicate that William H. Bishop, the famous novelist, a resident of that place, arrived overseas after a pleasant voyage and is comfortably located at Nice, France.

Senator Archibald Macdonald of Putnam, who is a candidate for re-election in this district, has indicated that if re-elected, he will lend his best efforts to secure the building of the state highway through South Killingly to Little River on the Rhode Island border.

Sen. Macdonald is chairman of the important committee on roads, rivers and bridges during the last two sessions of the general assembly. Senator Macdonald is agreed that this stretch of highway is one that is urgently needed to aid in the development of overland transportation in this section of the state.

In next Monday's annual town election there will be no polling place—in the town hall building here. At the presidential election in November polls will be open not only in the town hall, but also at Dayville for the second voting district, and at East Killingly, for third voting district.

Interest in bowling promises to be given a big boost Thursday evening when Vandell's team of Putnam comes here to meet Danielson team headed by Frank Barber at the Casino alleys. These teams are rolling a special series of matches that are proving a great attraction for the fans.

Members of the Girls' club of Dayville are forming a bowling class which will come to Danielson to use alleys. The Danielson Girls' club had a bowling team for some time.

There is a renewed demand for enforcement of the regulation of having wood measurers in Killingly. This demand is being brought about through the custom of offering wood at so much "per load." The present regulation is that high prices for wood makes the "per load" question a serious one for many householders. A number of dealers never quote wood by the load, but always by the load, a custom that makes it possible to obtain tremendous prices for this class of fuel. Much wood that is drawn in here from surrounding territory continues to be sold at a "per load" however, and the object of those who want wood measurers is to have all wood sold on that basis.

Under agreement, Mrs. A. E. Withington is to furnish lunches for the students at Killingly high school, which has but one session daily, with a lunch period about the noon hour. It is believed that this arrangement will prove very satisfactory. A variety menu is intended. In the past the chief objection to a one-session plan was that of parents who feared their children had been that students should not go for so long a period without warm food.

A hearing was scheduled to be held Tuesday relative to continuing service on the Providence and Danielson line between Providence and East Killingly. The present operating agreement between the receivers of the Rhode Island company and D. F. Sherman, who recently purchased the road at auction expires on Saturday next, October 2.

For the period mentioned Mr. Sherman has guaranteed the receiver against any deficit through losses in operation.

It was stated here on Tuesday that the Connecticut company, which is operating cars over the line between Danielson and East Killingly, has no knowledge of what arrangement Mr. Sherman intends to take to keep the other end of the line open, so the fate of the entire service between Providence and Providence remains in doubt for the present.

Thursday afternoon, at four o'clock there is to be an open forum at which A. P. Woodward will explain the use of the hall to all women of Killingly who are interested. The meeting is to be non-partisan.

PUTNAM

Judge Malbie, who presided at the September sessions of the superior court here, has handed down a decision in the case of Philip Jodoin, of Danielson, vs. Clara Law, et al., executors of the estate of George Law, formerly of Attawaugus, the decision being in favor of the defendants and against the plaintiffs. It is stated that Mr. Jodoin's suit was against the wrong parties.

Mr. Jodoin's suit grew out of a sale of property in Attawaugus. Mr. Law died leaving land and dwellings in the village mentioned. The executors, acting under an order of the court, sold one house and lot to one Russell and gave right with the deed to go onto the adjoining lot to draw water from a well on another part of the property.

Some time after this transaction the executors sold two other dwellings and the lots on which they were located to Mr. Jodoin, without notice in the deed of the encumbrance as to the right to take water. Mr. Jodoin then brought suit for breach of warranty.

Counsel for the executors filed a demurrer in which it was contended that the deed to Russell giving rights to the well without authority, as the executors had no power to create easements or other property excepting easements of necessity. This demurrer was sustained by the court. Torrey and Geisler of this city were counsel for the executors.

It is estimated that wage earners in industrial centers in this section of Windham county are losing in the aggregate between $125,000 and $150,000 a week as the result of the total suspension of operations by a number of textile concerns and the closing of the mills. There is little improvement this week in the prospect for resumption of activities. It was stated Tuesday in quarters of the mill business, though the prospects for very busy period later are very good, indeed.

Following services at Christ church, Pomfret, the body of Agnes Hopkin Chapman, 15, who died in Waterbury hospital last Friday evening, following an illness of very brief duration, was interred in the churchyard, where few burials have taken place during the past quarter century.

In the city court, James E. Houghlin pleaded guilty to a charge of recklessly operating his automobile and was fined $55 and costs. Judge W. Fenner Woodward of the town court of Killingly presided over the disposition of the case.

As Judge Geisler was disqualified to sit, and Deputy Judge Archibald Macdonald, Jr., is at Cleveland attending the convention of the American Legion as representative of Anselm Mayville post of this city.

Officials of the Woodstock fair will be early on the grounds today (Wednesday) to arrange the exhibits that usually pour in an early day. The main exhibition, damage done to the main exhibition hall and other property on the fair grounds, the association officials, with characteristic energy, have hunted about and made repairs to the damage done to the main exhibition hall and other property on the fair grounds.

Tomorrow, (Thursday), brings the last half-holiday of the season for the business of Putnam. There was no indication on Tuesday that the busy week a year round half-holiday arrangement, as was attempted last fall. This move did not find favor among the majority of business houses and it was finally abandoned.

Grange members in this vicinity will be among the large number who will take the seventh degree when it is conferred in Boston November 12, in connection with the important meetings of the grange to be held in that city at that time.

A representative of one of the country's best detective agencies was in Putnam Tuesday in connection with an effort to establish the identity and records of the two safe-breakers who are held at the county jail in Brooklyn.

No stove coal has been received at one Putnam yard for a week past. W. S. Johnson stated Tuesday. Some egg coal has been coming through recently, but it has been very difficult to get stove or nut sizes.

Tuesday there was a further installment by the Worcester Consolidated Street Railway company of service on this line from Webster to Perryville, near the Connecticut line, north from here.

Under the new arrangement there are hours each day when the car will not furnish any service and will cease for the night at 5:30 p. m. There has been no through service from Webster to Putnam since last February. The Connecticut Company's cars at present run only as far north as North Greenfield.

The Rhode Island commission on Foreign and Domestic Commerce last indicated that a real effort is to be made to get action that will result in the resumption of work on the completion of the Southern New England railway from Providence to Palmer, Mass., furnishing connections for St. Albans and Montreal towns and cities through which the line is to run have been invited to spend delegates to the Palmer Mass. town meeting for a conference soon to be held between the commission representatives and railroad officials. The railway as laid out and graded skirts the border of the neighboring town of Thompson within a half dozen miles of this city. Many millions of dollars were spent on this road, but after a great part of the grading had been accomplished, it has been abandoned put in the work was abandoned.

The Grand Trunk and Central Vermont railroads are closely allied with the Southern New England railway which was intended to furnish tide-water terminal in Providence, with through connections for Atlantic points.

Little has been heard about the project for half a dozen years.

John McClellan was elected president of the senior class of Woodstock Academy by a unanimous vote.

Scores of additional women voters will be qualified during the period beginning October 2 that has been provided to give opportunity to be admitted as electors. Putnam's registrars, Herman G. Carver

Good Judgment After Eating

Giving the Stomach the Alkaline Effect by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is Worth Remembering.

You cannot, as a rule, say in advance that this, that or the other food will cause indigestion. Experience has taught most people that even mince pie fits snugly at times while at others a glass of milk raises hobs with the stomach.

One good rule to follow is the preventive measure of taking one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. You thus avoid gasiness, sour stomach, heartburn and such distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia. These tablets also help to digest the food by giving the stomach the alkaline effect to offset acidity; they relieve the distress when the mince pie or milk should be more than a match for your digestive power. Get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and note how nicely they seem to calm the stomach when it feels all upset.

Farmers are well pleased over the fact that no damaging frosts of any consequence have come to hinder them in carrying out their fall harvesting.

Miss Harriet Sampson, of Woodstock, is an instructor of English in Miss Bennett's school, New York.

Leslie T. Hines of Worcester was a visitor with friends in Putnam on Tuesday.

Miss Owen, representing the national Red Cross, has been in town recently. Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Perry and two children motored to Worcester Monday afternoon.

The Arcanum club has invited Anselm Mayville Post of the American Legion to hold their next meeting, Monday evening, Oct. 4, at the club rooms.

This meeting will be an important one, as the committee having charge of the program for Armistice Day will make its first report, and expect a full explanation from the members regarding the most suitable celebration of this day. The matter of permanent quarters for the post will probably come up for discussion and it is hoped that Archibald Macdonald, Jr., the state delegate to the national convention at Cleveland, now in session, will be present and give his report. The entertainment committee plans refreshments and smokes.

Boys of the Putnam High school are almost daily practicing at jumping or running for the track meet which is to be held in October between Earlfield High, of Webster, and Putnam High.

The inter-class meet which was held Friday last, determined the boys who are to go to Webster to compete against athletes from the high school there. Last year the meet, which was held in Putnam, resulted in victory for the local school. Putnam defeating Webster 42 to 17, and this year Putnam ex-
